

EAIE Bologna seminar in collaboration with the University of Zagreb and as part of the TEMPUS projects Moving Ahead with the Bologna Process in Croatia (UM_JEP 18094-2003) and Furtherance of Bologna Promotion in Croatia (CM-SCM-CO32A06-2006)

Diploma Supplement and ECTS as mechanisms of mobility and tuning with the EU system

Thursday 14 June 2007, Dubrovnik (Croatia)

Centre for Advanced Academic Studies of the University of Zagreb in Dubrovnik
Don Frana Bulica 4

Programme

- 09.00-09.30 Arrival and registration
- 09.30-09.45 Welcome by Professor Melita Kovačević (University of Zagreb) and Alex Olde Kalter (EAIE Director)
- 09.45-10.15 Diploma Supplement and ECTS – State-of-the-art in Croatia
Professor Izvor Grubišić (University of Zagreb)
- 10.15-10.45 The student perspective on ECTS and Diploma Supplement
Colin Tück (ESIB)
- 10.45-11.15 Coffee break
- 11.15-11.45 ECTS in context and practice – An introduction
John Reilly (Former Director UK Socrates-Erasmus Council)
- 11.45-12.15 Panel discussion with all speakers – Moderator: Fiona Hunter (EAIE President)
- 12.30-14.00 Lunch at Restaurant Sesame (Dante Alighieri b.b.)
- 14.00-16.30 ECTS in context and practice – Working group discussion led by John Reilly
Seminar participants will break out into working groups and discuss amongst others the following topics:
- Examples and Evaluation of information/course catalogues
 - Curriculum design – the allocation of credits
 - Concept of learning outcomes
 - Learning agreements
 - Recognition

There will also be a half hour coffee break.

On Wednesday 13 June a joint dinner will be organised for all speakers and participants. The dinner will start at 20.00 and will take place at Restaurant Proto (Siroka Ulica 1).